

Open Letters to Goldco Spokespersons
2026/08/05
by Mac Stevens

Five spokespersons stand out. They champion evidence-based methods, are known for successful business policy, have led large organizations, and/or have gained a following by arguing in favor of conservative economic principles. Recently each has publicly recommended Goldco. I sent each a sample of Goldco bullion and packaging, invoices showing price, and a question. I made these letters open by copying them below. I believe my question should be asked and answered in public.

"As you know, I only partner with the best companies and the best people. I did my research and met the team at Goldco, who are top notch precious metals specialists." – Candace Owens

"My family has always been strong believers in gold and silver. It's been the foundation of our wealth for generations and is why I partnered with Goldco." – Lara Trump

"I learned early on to put a percentage of my earnings in gold & silver. That's why I recommend Goldco." -- Sean Hannity www.protectingmysavings-podcast.com/hannity-032026

"That's why I partnered with Gold-Co, Goldco. It's a new partner. They don't just offer the best customer service for precious metals ownership, they are the only gold dealer that offers a first time gold buyer a rebate of up to 10% in bonus silver on qualified purchases. There is no better offer out there." -- Dinesh D'Souza www.youtube.com/watch?v=E-pF3jKcB5U

"This episode is brought to you by Gold Co! Get up to $10,000 in FREE silver when you go to <https://DineshGold.com>." -- www.youtube.com/watch?v=G0O-4M\_wx44

"I chose to, once again, partner with Goldco because of their unwavering commitment to their customers. Their 'white glove' service, track record of excellence and the best industry promotions are why I trust them to help Americans protect their retirement savings." -- Donald Trump Jr.

OPEN LETTER TO CANDACE OWENS

Dear Ms. Owens,

Enclosed is silver bullion in original packaging (1). Goldco sold this bullion to my mother at a premium of 169% over spot price (2). Another customer reports same price for same bullion (3).

In July 2025, Forbes modified its criteria for gold IRA companies. It de-emphasized premium (fact) and increased emphasis on customer sentiment (feeling). Simultaneously, it added Goldco to its list (4).

Please give your evidence. What financial metric led you to prefer Goldco over other dealers?

Sincerely,

Mac Stevens

OPEN LETTER TO LARA TRUMP

Dear Ms. Trump,

Enclosed is silver bullion in original packaging (1). Goldco sold this bullion to my mother at a premium of 169% over spot price (2). Another customer reports same price for same bullion (3).

January 2025, I attended the World Money Fair in Berlin (4). I walked up to the Royal Dutch Mint booth and presented a full tube of 25 coins. I asked the representative if this was the mint's packaging. She answered yes, but it was so ordered by Goldco.

You did your research. Which financial metric did you use to select Goldco in preference to other dealers?

Sincerely,

Mac Stevens

OPEN LETTER TO SEAN HANNITY

Dear Mr. Hannity,

Enclosed is silver bullion in original packaging (1). Goldco sold this bullion to my mother at a premium of 169% over spot price (2). Another customer reports same price for same bullion (3).

From a contiguous sequence of 2,200 Goldco customer reviews on Google, I searched for reviews with price information. From these few reviews, I computed the median premium to be at least 100% over spot (4).

You did your research. Which financial metric did you use to select Goldco in preference to other dealers?

Sincerely,

Mac Stevens

OPEN LETTER TO DINESH D'SOUZA

Dear Mr. D'Souza,

Enclosed is silver bullion in original packaging (1). Goldco sold this bullion to my mother at a premium of 169% over spot price (2). Another customer reports same price for same bullion (3).

From a contiguous sequence of 2,200 Goldco customer reviews on Google, I tallied up the use of various words. Four reviews contained "premium" as a noun. Three contained the word "spread" (4). When I heard you promote Goldco, you mentioned neither premium nor spread.

If there's no free lunch, there's no free silver. Which financial metric did you use to select Goldco in preference to other dealers?

Sincerely,

Mac Stevens

OPEN LETTER TO DONALD TRUMP JR

Dear Mr. Trump,

Enclosed is silver bullion in original packaging (1). Goldco sold this bullion to my mother at a premium of 169% over spot price (2). Another customer reports same price for same bullion (3).

This silver bullion was custom made for Goldco. According to the Central Bank of Malta, 675,000 of these coins were minted (4). There could easily be hundreds of investors.

I asked forty dealers what they would pay. Answer: near spot price (5). Goldco is the exception and would pay 86% premium over spot. That's not security. That's not diversification. That's dependence on a single buyer.

You're leading people somewhere. Which financial metric did you use to select Goldco in preference to other dealers?

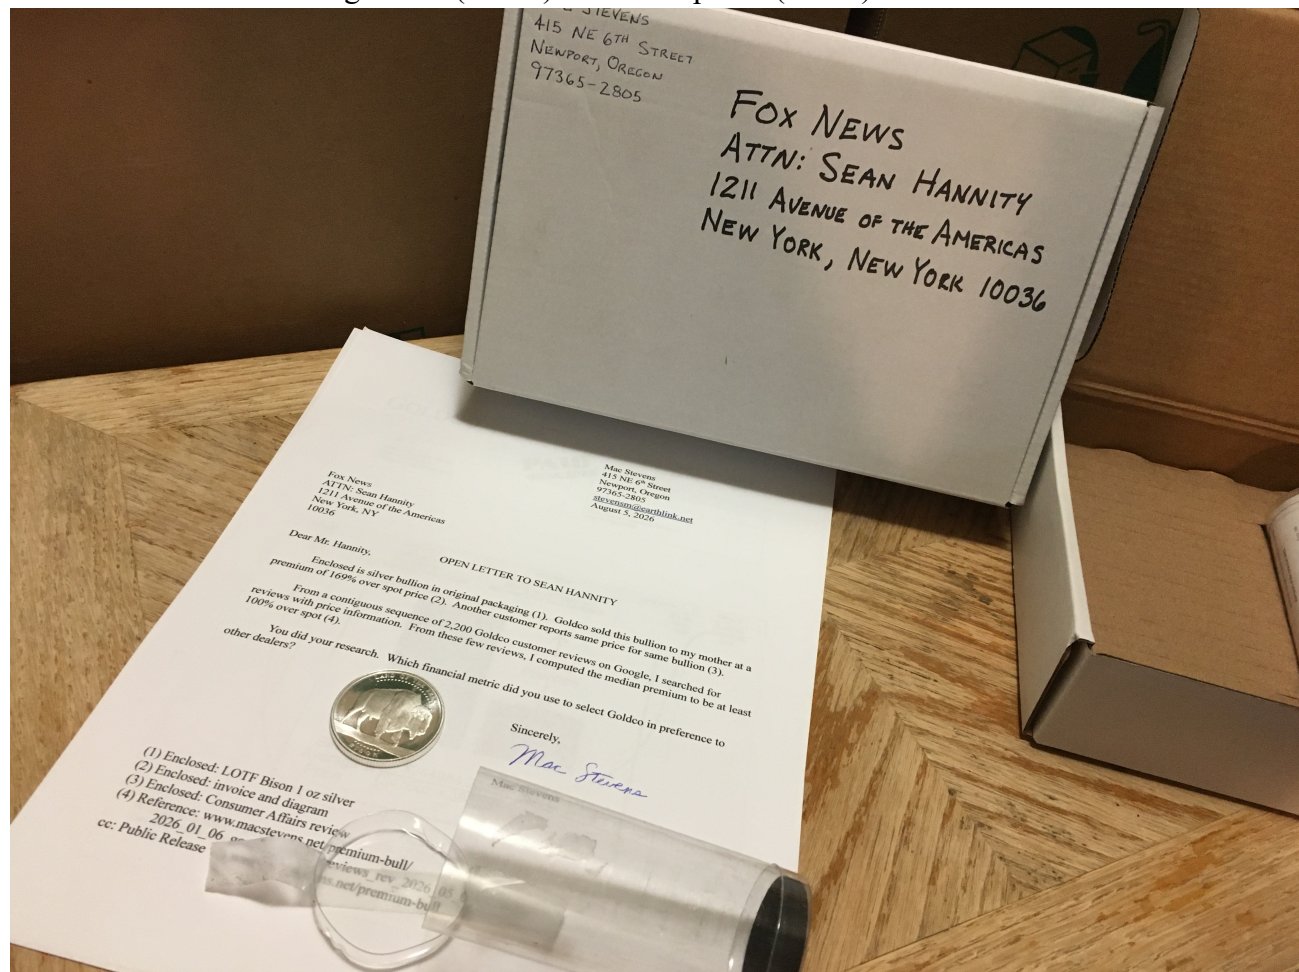

Sincerely,

Mac Stevens

"I was slammed and lied to. Be aware!!!! Goldco is charging $70/ounce for silver and I was told otherwise on the phone call, I was told it was double, 2 ounces. When I got their invoice it was one ounce. What liars, don't ever use them. I can't get them to respond. This infuriates me as they lied through their teeth, I left messages to cancel. I'm not paying $70 ounce for silver when the identical product sells for $33." -- Consumer Affairs Customer Review

The price for silver is identical, and the price for ¼ oz. gold differs by one cent, from prices Goldco charged Delores Elizabeth Stevens near the same time.
